Panel Process

Grant awards and funding recommendations will be determined by a competitive peer review process conducted by a panel of artists, arts administrators, and community leaders in the City of Syracuse. The panel will first review each application both on its own merits as well as against the broader application pool, then convene for an online panel meeting to deliberate funding recommendations. Because funds are limited, applications must meet specific criteria as published within these guidelines. The panel’s funding recommendations will then be submitted to the CNY Arts Board of Directors for ratification.

Panelists

Peer review panelists for CNY Arts grant programs are nominated by residents and community members of the City of Syracuse and are subsequently appointed by the CNY Arts Board of Directors. CNY Arts Board Members and Syracuse Common Councilors are welcome to observe the panel meeting but are forbidden from reviewing any applications or otherwise participating in the peer review panel process. The Syracuse Public Art Coordinator will sit on all panels.

Review Criteria

The Arts & Culture Recovery Fund program aims to grant funds for arts and cultural programming within the City of Syracuse and will therefore favor all applicants who reside in or have a business address within the city. Priority will be given to applications that demonstrate the following:

- Severity of Loss;
- Arts and Service to the Public; and
- Fiscal Competence & Management.

Responsibilities of Grant Recipients

Payment Schedule

Arts & Culture Recovery Fund grants are reimbursement grants. Grantees may request reimbursement at any time for the award. 25% of the award will be held back until a Final Report is received and approved by CNY Arts, at which time the remaining funds will be released within fifteen (15) business days.

Reporting Responsibilities

The Arts & Culture Recovery Fund program is subject to a federal Single Audit by the Federal Government, previously known as the OMB Circular A-133 audit. A Single Audit is intended to provide assurance to the Federal Government that an awarded non-federal entity has adequate internal controls and is in compliance with program requirements. Due to the requirements of this audit, all grant recipients will be responsible for submitting rigorous and detailed Interim and Final Reports to CNY Arts and all receipts, proofs of payment, cancelled checks, etc. to account for every penny spent of ARPA funds.

Grantees that are awarded more than $50,000.00 are subject to additional public scrutiny through the Federal Funding Accountability & Transparency Act (FFATA) and US Treasury.

Grantees whose total federal funds exceed $750,000.00 are themselves subject to a federal Single Audit.

Administrative Appeals

Administrative appeals are intended for situations in which the applicant believes there was a serious administrative error in the review or processing of their application, denying the applicant a fair review. Applicants may only appeal after discussing panel notes with the Regrants Program Manager and have reason to believe that one of the following grounds for appeal have occurred. Denial of an award or dissatisfaction with the grant amount is not grounds for appeal.

Grounds for Appeal

- Non-presentation of significant and pertinent information by CNY Arts staff or Peer Review Panelist;
- Misrepresentation of significant and pertinent information by CNY Arts staff or Peer Review Panelist; or
- Improper procedure.

Appeals Process

If a denied applicant wishes to pursue an appeal, they must contact the CNY Arts Regrants Program Staff within five (5) days of the denial notification. The Program Staff will provide relevant context regarding the Panel's decision and conduct an internal review to see if grounds for appeals exist. If grounds exist, the applicant may officially file an appeal with the Program Staff to be submitted to the CNY Arts Board of Directors. The appeal must be filed within ten (10) days of the denial notification.

CNY Arts will convene a special Panel of at least three Panelists and resubmit the application for scoring and review using the original evaluation criteria. The special Panel will consist of artists, arts administrators, and community leaders. Current Panelists will be prohibited from serving.

If the appeal is successful and the special Panel determines that the denied application is worthy of grant funding, the Panel's recommendation will be sent to the CNY Arts Board of Directors and the application will be funded.

If the special Panel determines that the denied application does not score highly enough to be worthy of grant funding, the Re grants Program Staff will notify the denied applicant and provide Panel feedback.
