Purpose

The Poet Laureate of Onondaga County is an honorary title given to an esteemed poet who serves as the poetic voice of our community.

The honorary position of Poet Laureate exists to promote literacy and the literary arts across Onondaga County through the writing and reading of poetry. The title was created and is appointed biennially on the recommendation of a panel of peers administered by CNY Arts.

Over the course of their two-year term, the Poet Laureate serves as the poetic voice of our local history, culture, and people. This individual is responsible for cultivating a greater appreciation of public kinship by sharing their poetry at events in the county; presenting readings and lectures about poetry and the literary arts; and advocating on behalf of children and adults by encouraging the reading and writing of poetry at schools, libraries, and other community centers.

The Onondaga County Poet Laureate shall receive a $5,000.00 honorarium—$2500 per year for two years—determined by CNY Arts, Inc.

Selection Process

CNY Arts shall receive all nominations, including self-nominations, for the title of Poet Laureate and administer a panel of peers of at least five individuals. This advisory panel shall consist of the current Poet Laureate of Onondaga County (who shall advise in the appointment of their successor), and distinguished persons with expertise in the field of poetry. Panelists must be approved by the CNY Arts Board of Directors and must adhere to conflict of interest and confidentiality policies. The panel shall nominate a poet whose achievements merit them the appointment of Poet Laureate of Onondaga County.

All nominees will be notified of the selection outcome. The Poet Laureate shall be considered a civic appointment and one of distinction.

- The Onondaga County Poet Laureate Panel will review all submitted nominations and select at least three (3) semi-finalists.
- Each semi-finalist will be interviewed by the Panel, either in person or by video call.
- The Panel will vote and subsequently recommend the semi-finalist with majority support.
- CNY Arts will announce the Poet Laureate of Onondaga County to the public.
